

GORRE PARK 2012

Enlightened, dramatic ideas to re-envision the core of our beloved Hamilton. Why not?

The Connaught Spire. We loved the vibe for a day. We need some drama.

Reinvest + re-clad or blow up Terminal Towers. It is spent, but ugly, dowdy + makes me sad.

Gussy up the ugly
HSBC bank +
soon please!

Need some more height + drama in the bay city. Tall, sculptural, smugly confident to alter the skyline irrevocably.

Fix the Commerce Bank Tower at the ground floor. Add bar/retail/shops to animate the street. Add big canopies.
Add a big patio. Add signs of life!

Imagine bars, restaurants, +
cafes overlooking the Gore
from the old Rave Records Store (Kit Kat Variety now).

Dead sexy Euro LRT running through the Gore. Tomorrow, please!!

Remove the street, extend the park south. Give every business on the south side an Instant, no approval required 30' deep patio.
