

Ground-breaking ceremony for Ancaster seniors centre

Hamilton Spectator

The public is invited to attend a ground-breaking ceremony and funding announcement at the Ancaster Senior Achievement Centre.

The events scheduled for June 15 begin at 9:30 a.m. at the centre, 622 Alberton Rd. S., Alberton.

Speakers will include David Sweet and Ted McMeekin, MP and MPP for Ancaster-Dundas-Flamborough-Westdale. Hamilton councillor Lloyd Ferguson has also been invited to attend.

Following the ceremony, there will be a funding announcement for the Sackville Hill Seniors Centre, scheduled for 11:30 a.m.

Both events are related to municipal recreation projects within the federal government's Community Infrastructure Improvement Fund (CIIF) in partnership with the City of Hamilton.
